Gov. Vardaman Investigates Race Troubles.

TROOPS DEPART FROM SCENE

Scooba Has Quieted Down After a Alexander, of Kemper County,

Scooba, Miss., Dec. 27.-The more the racial troubles that have prevailed here this week are investigated, the more clearly it appears they were due to low elements of whites, who took advantage of the killing of Conductor Cooper by the negro Simp-As a result, about twelve negroes were ineffectual, killed, at least ten of them having no sor of connection with the killing of Cooper. In fact, they were at home asleep when Cooper was killed.

It seems that Deputy Sheriff Alexander started out to search for Cooper's slayer The deputy was joined by many whites, a majority of whom were of the tough ele ment, and these took advantage of the hunt for Simpson to kill and run away. The way this posse, or mob, treated Calvin Nicholson, a respected negro, is a sample of what has occurred in Kempe County. In Nicholson's shanty were sever children, two women, and one man, is addition to its owner. Apparently without provocation, several of the white men fired into the hut. Deputy Alexander attempted to prevent further firing. In his

Since coming from the county seat, De Kalb, to act as sheriff in the place of Mr. Tart, who now holds that office, but is in another part of the county serving legal papers, Deputy Alexanders has been repeatedly threatened by the tough element that 'has caused so much confusion here. Five armed men called at his apartments to kill him, and upon being met by his roommate and informed that he was not in, they retreated.

Gov. Vardaman has been here to-day investigating, and the above facts were put before him. The governor, however, says that the murder of Cooper by the drunken negro caused the trouble undoubtedly.
